

Dan Boever Press Release

Dan Boever ranks among the most popular performers on the golf exhibition circuit. Known for his quick wit and amazing repertoire of trick shots, Boever can light up an audience like few others in the golf entertainment business.

There's a bounce in his step, a sparkle in his eye and impish grin on his face as he works his magic through the bag. Whether Boever's blasting his driver nearly 400 yards or his putter nearly 300 yards, He keeps the one-liners coming. His showmanship is infectious – and unforgettable.

His antics are so amusing and engaging that, beginning in late 2005 and extending into 2007, The Golf Channel devoted a 30-minute special, "Outasight Golf Tricks," to Dan Boever's shtick. The show drew rave reviews.

A native Iowan, who now resides in Missouri, Boever was an All-America baseball player at the University of Nebraska before beginning a professional career with the Cincinnati Reds organization. After success on the diamond

Boever took his bat speed and remarkable eye-hand coordination and turned his attention to golf. He has qualified for the RE/MAX World Long Drive

Championship, the premier event in power golf, on eleven straight occasions. Boever registered one of the longest drives ever at the RE/MAX world finals – 425 yards at the Casablanca Resort in Mesquite, Nevada. His combination of power and personality made his selection for the elite distance teams formed by Pinnacle and Cobra a no-brainer. Since joining Pinnacle and Cobra Boever, has appeared in eight national commercials and the New Line Cinema release, 'Hoot'.

Boever's impressive list of clients includes Yahoo!, Pepsi, Sprint, Mercedes Benz, The Players Championship, Bank of America, St Jude's Hospital, Texas Instruments and MGM Grand Hotel.

Dan is sure to keep the gallery in stitches and fans on his side.

Dan Boever never met a stranger he didn't convert into a fast friend. That explains why hundreds of corporations and charities, when booking a headliner for their golf outings, borrow a page from old-time television: They leave it to Boever.
